A Few Words From Cory...

If God Should Go On Strike

*How good it is that God above has never gone on strike,
Because he was not treated fair in things he didn't like,
If only once he'd given up and said, "That's it, I'm through!
"I've had enough of those on earth, so this is what I'll do.
"I'll give my orders to the sun — cut off the heat supply!
"And to the moon — give no more light, and run the oceans dry.
"Then just to make things really tough and put the pressure on,
"Turn off the vital oxygen till every breath is gone!"
You know he would be justified, if fairness was the game,
For no one has been more abused or met with more disdain
Than God, and yet he carries on, supplying you and me
With all the favors of his grace, and everything for free.
Men say they want a better deal, and so on strike they go,
But what a deal we've given God to whom all things we owe.
We don't care whom we hurt to gain the things we like;
But what a mess we'd all be in, if God should go on strike.*

Can you imagine a world without God's grace? Even though the above poem is good, I want to share another that I think is even more profound.

"For He rescued us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation: ¹⁶ for by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or rulers, or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is also the head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him, ²⁰ and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross." Colossians 1:13-20

Thank you Jesus for all you do and all you give.

Salad Luncheon
Guest Speaker: Terry Kline, Pregnancy Hope Cent Director

Following are suggestions as to what is needed to help stock their "baby boutique"

- Boy's clothing - sizes newborn to 18 months Sleepers, onesies, long sleeve outfits (They receive lots of girls outfits, but always have a need for boys)
- Baby Blankets - larger flat quilt-like blankets that can be used on the floor
- Diapers and Baby wipes - Diapers #6
- Baby lotions and powders

FOOD BANK ITEMS FOR MARCH:
Cereal....pudding snack cups....mac and cheese....Romen noodles....instant soup cups....fruit cups....pearnut, jam/jelly

A Sunday School teacher asked her preschool class as they were going to the worship service..."And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One little girl said, "Because people are sleeping."
