The Compass

A Few Words from Cory...

The longer I live the less I understand our world. It seems like everything that should be up is down, what is right is now wrong, and what should be common sense is somehow seen as racist, misogynist, or just about anything other “ist or ism” you can imagine.

How do you deal with those things that somehow are so opposite of what we know to be true? The way I find the biggest encouragement and support is I turn to certain passages that give me perspective on this life.

For example, read Ephesians 6:10 A final word: Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. 11 Put on all of God’s armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. 12 For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

The fiery darts thrown at us are not from people, although they may be the instrument that Satan uses to do that. No those fiery darts are spiritual; designed to discourage us, depress us and to get us to move away from the hope that Jesus gives us.

When I see the evil that is in our world and see how it manifests itself, I just have to remember that God is with us! He will never leave us or forsake us. He has adopted us, called us His own kids, and supplied everything we need for living a godly life.

2 Peter 1:3 By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence. 4 And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world’s corruption caused by human desires.

God has given us everything we need, but also empowered us to live life that is victorious, full (John 10:10) and in spite of things that happen around us, we can live with the Joy that He gives.

- Samson slayed the Philistines with the axe of the Apostles.

Colossians 1:11 We also pray that you will be strengthened with all his glorious power so you will have all the endurance and patience you need. May you be filled with joy, 12 always thanking the Father. He has enabled you to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light. 13 For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son, 14 who purchased our freedom and forgave our sins.

If you are struggling, need perspective, and want to be reminded of the hope that God offers meditate on these scriptures and others like them throughout the Bible! In them is life.

John 1:1 In the beginning the Word already existed. The Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He existed in the beginning with God. 3 God created everything through him, and nothing was created except through him. 4 The Word gave life to everything that was created, and his life brought light to everyone. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it.

God's blessings on you all as we prepare to celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus on April 5th.
